FAQ's

Why are we changing our name?

1. To establish a new brand for our network and customers in the Canadian SAP Consulting industry.
2. To better promote our services through stronger use of branding and marketing initiatives.
3. To more accurately reflect our corporate profile and company structure including internal expertise, and operations.

When does this change take place?

Effective July 2008

What will change?

All of our branding and marketing material, our logo, business cards, and website.

Will this affect current engagements, contacts and contracts?

No. Groupex-Solutions' workforce will be unchanged. Service quality, our methods and commitment will stay the same.

Will this have implication on the legal or financial side of our service offerings?

No. It should be noted that, only a change of name of the Company has been effected and that the legal entity and structure of the Company remain the same. All contracts entered into with the Company prior to the change of name process remain in full force and effect and will not require amendment or substitution.

As a consultant, does this affect the way I'll be paid?

No. Payments processing will not change. Our direct deposit and payment schedule will remain the same, you will not notice any significant changes other than branding.
